A truly unique & characterful 2 double bedroom ground-floor mews home, tucked away behind a distinctive arched gated entrance in the heart of Upper Green, Baildon. Combines privacy, individuality & far-reaching valley views.

The gated entrance opens into a secluded courtyard garden, beautifully enclosed by mature planting & stonework, creating a peaceful setting for outdoor dining & entertaining. A further terrace / balcony enjoys elevated views across the valley.

Solid Oak front door with beveled glass leads into the impressive open-plan kitchen features extensive timber cabinetry with marble tops and central Island, range cooker, exposed beams & Yorkshire stone flooring. Adjoining the kitchen is a bright sun room, adding a further reception area & creating a lovely connection with the outside space.

The spacious lounge is full of character, with timber paneling, feature Stone fireplace with open fire grate giving a warm, traditional feel & Georgian bay window. The separate dining room provides an excellent entertaining space, again with feature surround & Fire.

There are 2 well-proportioned bedrooms, including a particularly generous principal bedroom with extensive fitted storage. The bathroom continues the individual style with stone-effect tiling, vanity wash basin, WC & heated towel rail. draft photos

This is certainly not a conventional home. The quirky layout, courtyard setting, character detailing, generous living spaces & valley outlook combine to create a property with genuine personality.

Upper Green offers a peaceful yet convenient Baildon setting, within easy reach of the village amenities.
